Insider Trading Policy

The Company pays attention to preventing insider trading. It is the Company's policy that directors, executives, employees and workers must not, directly or indirectly, with or without returns, disclose or seek benefits for themselves or others from information that potentially impacts the Company's stock price, or information that can jeopardize or impair the Company if being disclosed and regarded as confidential and important information, including secrets and/or non-public information; as well as must not do securities transactions that are based on insider information. To prevent misuse of insider information, the Company has undertaken the following steps:

1. Educate the Company's directors and executives regarding their duty to report to the SEC Office on their holdings of the Company's shares as well as the holdings of their spouse or cohabiting couple, and minor children, including a juristic person whose shares exceeding thirty percent of the total voting rights are held by the director and executives, their spouse or cohabited couple, and minor children. This duty is prescribed in Section 59 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 (1992) and its amendments with the penalty provision under Section 275. Also, the acquisition or disposition of securities must be reported under Section 246 with the penalty provision under Section 298 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 (1992) and its amendments.
2. Direct the Company's directors and executive, including their spouse or cohabited couple, and minor children, as well as a juristic person whose shares exceeding thirty percent of the total voting rights are held by the director and executives, their spouse or cohabited couple, and minor children to prepare and disclose reports to the SEC Office on the holding of securities and the changes to such holding under the criteria set forth in the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 (1992) and its amendments, as well as submit a copy of such reports to the Company on the same day that the originals are submitted to the SEC Office.
3. Direct that directors, executives, employees and workers of the Company and its subsidiaries with the knowledge of or possession of material insider information which has or may have an impact on the change of securities price, securities value including persons presumably knowing or having in possession the insider information under the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 (1992) and its amendments, must refrain from doing transactions of the Company's securities during one month prior to the disclosure of the financial statements or such information to the public. And within 24 hours after the disclosure to the public, persons relating to such information must not disclose the information to any other persons until the submission to the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

Any actions in violation of the above regulation will be deemed as disciplinary offence under the Company's Article of Associations and such persons will be proportionately punished based on intention and seriousness, ranging from verbal warning, written warning, probation, pay cut, suspension without pay to dismissal.

This Insider Trading Policy shall be effective from 8 August 2019 onwards.

This Insider Trading policy was reviewed by the Board of Directors' Meeting No. 3/2021 on 13 August 2021.
